

Mystery date for TV 'tecs

TWO of television's top detectives face a riddle of their own as they wait for a plane at London's Heathrow Airport.

Actress Joanna Lumley, better known as Purdey from the New Avengers, joined forces with TV tough guy Dennis Waterman — Sergeant Carter in The Sweeney.

The pair were on their way to a TV festival in the south of France. But it was all a bit of a mystery.

Joanna said: "No one has told us anything about the festival."

"Neither of us knows whether it is a competitive festival or an open one where different countries exhibit their shows before selling them!"
