

'Avengers' go to America

THE American C.B.S. television network has bought 26 episodes of the British series The New Avengers for an undisclosed sum, it was announced yesterday.

The series will be screened coast-to-coast across America.

Avengers off on new scent

The Avengers have gone into action against a firm alleged to have made a scent named Purdy, after the glamour girl star of the TV series played by Joanna Lumley.

A writ has been issued by The Avengers (Film and TV) Enterprises against Mr Carlo Dini and his company, Dini of Italy, of Regent Street, Mayfair.
